Introduction

The uptake of mobile services by Kenyans continued to grow during the first quarter of the 2015/16 financial year spanning July to September 2015. According to the quarterly sector statistics report by the Communications Authority of Kenya (CA), at the end of the quarter, mobile penetration stood at 88.1 per cent with 37.8 million subscribers up from 36.1 million in the previous quarter.

Other considerable gains were recorded in the Internet/data market, which has registered 21.6 million subscriptions up from 19.9 million in the last quarter. The number of Internet users grew to 31.9 million from 29.6 million in the previous quarter. Consequently, the portion of the Kenyan population accessing Internet services reached 74.2 per 100 inhabitants up from 69.0 per 100 inhabitants recorded in the previous quarter.

In summary the future of marketing and content broadcast is the mobile phone. We at smart space Africa pride ourselves in providing mobile based solutions to organizations, companies, businesses and even individuals. We have tapped into the mobile industry and invested heavily in mobile based solutions that are guaranteed to reach more people and save more on cost as mobile marketing is the most affordable, reliable and efficient form of communications globally.

Media Penetration Comparisons

Radio Listenership

Weekly radio listenership generated the highest engagement levels given the high penetration and level of access to radio.

An average weekly radio listener listens to up to three stations a week, for approximately 37 hours. Radio stations broadcasting in Swahili have the highest levels of reach.

Television Viewing

The average television viewer watches up to three stations on a weekly basis and spends an average of 26 hours.

During prime time (6pm – 10 pm), most time is spent watching soap operas and the news.

Newspaper Readership

Two thirds of weekly newspaper readers do not purchase their own copy; they rely on a copy from a household member or from the office.

Key sections of interest in newspapers are local news, sports and international news.

Mobile & Social Media

According to the quarterly sector statistics report by the Communications Authority of Kenya (CA), at the end of the quarter, mobile penetration stood at 88.1 per cent with 37.8 million subscribers up from 36.1 million in the previous quarter.

Why Smart Space Africa?

Providing Research–Based Strategic Solutions

Smart Space Africa is a strong advocate of a structured marketing and campaign process. We believe that for any campaigning effort to be successful it must be strategically conceived and executed.

We feel that the strategic development and implementation of any campaign or business plan can only be successful when both the consulting team and the client are fully committed and intellectually engaged. Putting that belief into practice, Smart Space Africa works closely with the client's team to produce a campaign that is:

- ♦ Supported by research
- ♦ Strategically sound
- ♦ Fiscally responsible

To this end, we invest important time in discovery concerning the client's goals, processes, market opportunities, competition, pricing, communications options and distribution channels.

Strategic Marketing and Business Consulting

Smart Space Africa has worked with clients to help them meet their marketing objectives. During that time, we have developed sophisticated analytical and planning capabilities, with a solid track record in providing:

- ♦ Campaign plans
- ♦ Campaign communications plans
- ♦ Campaign/competitor analyses
- ♦ Product feasibility studies
- ♦ Financial modeling
- ♦ Distribution channel analyses
